TREES are in half leaf.
TRAINS on time to-day.
COURT is expected to close to-morrow forenoon.
NEXT town council meeting will be held on Friday the 26th.
THE duck shooting season ended on Monday last, May 15th.
RAIS on Wednesday, warm and calm, doing an immense amount of good.
MONDAY'S train brought 5 cars merchandise, 1 car baggage, 1 coach and one express car.
P. HEIMNICK is building a warehouse between his real estate office and Ross Bros. old hardware store.
ROSS BROS. have removed the warehouse in rear of their old store to the rear of the building they now occupy.
A TEACHERS' institute is being held in the public school to-day conducted by Messrs. Goggin and Hewgill.
DR. and Mrs. True of San Francisco arrived on Monday's train to look after their real estate investments in Edmonton.
REV. A. McDonald of the Baptist church, has rented the house lately occupied by Mrs. Hardisty, and expects his family from North Dakota, some day next week.
THE masons of Edmonton are requested to attend divine service at the Methodist church, on Sunday evening next. Sermon to be preached by Rev. Bro. C. A. Procunier, chaplain of Edmonton lodge.
PASTOR A. McDonald has been confined to the house for the last day or two with an attack of something like muscular rheumatism but is now convalescent, and hopes to be able to fill his appointments on the Lord's day.
Medicine Hat Times: Frank Cowles left on Tuesday for Edmonton, where he will join a survey party, which works north of the Saskatchewan, this summer. The engineering staff of the party passed through here Monday evening.
SUPERINTENDENT of Education Goggin and school inspector Hewgill arrived on Monday's train to inspect the schools in this district. They visited Edmonton public school on Tuesday and St. Joachim's separate school on Wednesday.
T. G. PEARCE, Dominion immigration agent returned from Gaylor, Southern Minnesota, on Thursday last week. There are good prospects of immigration from that point as soon as seeding is over. The season has been backward there as elsewhere.
Prof. Goggin, superintendent of education for the Northwest will deliver an address on "Morals in the public schools" in Robertson's hall this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. In addition to the address there will be a short musical and literary programme. The general public are cordially invited to attend.
F. MARIAGGI of the Alberta hotel has a green house in running order which is a credit to his taste and enterprise. He has been using radishes, lettuce and cress raised in it for some time. Besides cabbage, cauliflower, celery and tomato plants ready for planting out he has cucumbers in blossom and formed on the vines, melons growing finely, chili peppers and tobacco plants all doing well.
A LARGE and handsome Siberian blood hound came to town with Dr. True on Monday. The animal is of a dun color, short haired, tall and strong with large chest and heavy fore legs, but with a very peaceable expression of countenance. He is not however as peaceable as he looks. His ears have been cropped, which detracts from his appearance. F. Mariaggi's dog made too free with him and was thrown in the air as though he had been a rat.
At last night's council meeting it was decided that a fire hall 50x50 of solid brick should be built, with stone foundation, to cost about $6,500. It was decided to raise the license for a single day to $15, and for a double day to $25; that livery stables licenses should be raised to $25; that water carriers licenses be made $10 each for the first two vehicles, and $5 for each additional vehicle; that boarding house licenses be raised to $10.
MR. and Mrs. E. O. Chapman left for Washington on Tuesday's train. Their horses and mules are still under seizure by the customs authorities and will probably be sold shortly. It is not too much to say that by their action in this case the customs authorities have done this district and the Northwest generally $10,000 worth of harm, not for the sake of the duty on three horses and two mules, for the owner was willing to pay the duty, but out of pure cussedness.
RAIS began falling last night about ten o'clock and had not entirely ceased at noon to-day. During part of the night the fall was very heavy accompanied by wind. The storm seems to have been general, extending at least as far as Battleford and Calgary. The telegraph wires are down between Pitt and Battleford and the C.P.R. wires are down east of Calgary. Immediate reports rain all night with heavy wind. At Battleford the wind blew 45 miles an hour.
C. M. WOODWORTH, barrister, late of Halifax, Nova Scotia, has opened a law office in the Imperial bank block. Mr. Woodworth holds the degree of B. A. from Acadia college, Wolfville, Nova Scotia, and of LL.B. from Dalhousie college, Halifax. After graduating he was called for three years with C. S. Harrington, Q. C., president of the barristers' society of Halifax, from whom he holds the highest recommendations as to character and ability, as well as from Mr. Weldon, M. P. for Albert, N. B. and dean of Dalhousie law school.

LAST night's rainfall was the heaviest in the same space of time, since the 13th July, 1888. Nearly two inches of rain fell in 5 hours.
THE child that was lost on the Stony Plain on Wednesday of last week was found on Tuesday, dead, lying beside a lake about four miles from its father's house. It is supposed that it died from exhaustion. As stated before it was a little boy about three years old, the son of Fred Gabel, a German settler on the plain.
THE Edmonton excitement in the Palouse district of Washington and Idaho has naturally given rise to a counter excitement. That is, while many people are in the humor to better their condition by removal, many others are doing all they can by misrepresentations of various kinds to hold them where they are. The Colfax Commencer of April 14th, has an interview with one Geo. Briggs of that place who spent last fall and winter south of Calgary, and who gives a most graphic account of the disadvantages under which that region labors, carefully omitting mention of its advantages. The region in which Mr. Briggs lived and which the interview purports to describe, is a grazing district, whose specialty is the raising of horses, cattle and sheep. It is not a farming country, in the same sense as the Edmonton district, from which it differs in climate, soil, physical features and capacity of production almost as much as Western differs from Eastern Washington. If Mr. Briggs was looking for a farming country he should not have gone to Southern Alberta, and if he was telling an honest story he should have told what Southern Alberta was best adapted for. It is to be hoped that if this item should meet the eye of any person who has thought of removing to the Edmonton district, he will remember that Mr. Briggs' description, exaggerated as it is, does not apply to the Edmonton district in any way, from which the scene of his adventures is distant over 200 miles.

SURVEYS.

J. S. Dennis, chief inspector of surveys for the Dominion, arrived on Monday's train to superintend survey operations in this section of the country this season. His headquarters will be at Edmonton. These operations will be on a larger scale than in any recent year. There are now at work three parties in the Edmonton district re-marking old surveys, in charge of Messrs Gosselin, Hubbell and Green. Mr. Gosselin is working north and west of Edmonton north of the Saskatchewan. Mr. Hubbell is east of Edmonton and south of the Saskatchewan and Mr. Green, south of Edmonton near the railway line. One party under Mr. Wilkins, will make partial subdivisions of townships where the exigencies of settlement demands and where provision has not been made for survey by contract. At present Mr. Wilkins and Mr. Miles are engaged on work of this nature in Southern Alberta. Besides these there are fourteen contract surveyors who must be at work by June 1st, all in Northern Alberta, and whose work will be the subdivision of 95 townships. These townships are in three groups, one chiefly between the Red Deer and Battle rivers around Buffalo lake and east of the railway, one between the Battle river and Beaver Hills and one taking in the greater part of that splendid tract of country extending between Beaver and Birch lakes and north to the Saskatchewan. The contracts are as follows, roughly described:

1. C. A. Magrath, 7 townships, two south west of Olds station and five on the Red Deer east from the crossing.
2. Wheeler, 6 townships, on the Red Deer, east of Magrath's contract.
3. Doupe, 5 townships, on Buffalo lake and Tail creek.
4. Thompson, 9 townships, north and east of Buffalo lake.
5. McAree, 8 townships, six west of Buffalo lake, and two at Gull lake west of the railway.
6. Foster, 5 townships, around Red Deer lake northwest of Buffalo lake and south of Battle river.
7. Dumais, 9 townships, east and west of Dried Meat lake on both sides of Battle river.
8. McPhillips, 6 townships, four on the south west corner of the Beaver hills, and two west of the White Mud creek.
9. Bonrgault, 7 townships, south of the Beaver hills.
10. T. W. Chalmers, 7 townships, between Birch and Beaver lakes.
11. Martin, 6 townships, east of Beaver lake and north of Chalmers contract.
12. Hainboth, 6 townships, northeast of Beaver lake, adjoining Martin's contract.
13. Bulanger, 6 townships, south of Victoria and east of Egg lake.
14. Stanley, 6 townships, west of Saddle Lake Indian reserve on both sides of the Saskatchewan.

Besides the 95 townships under contract it is expected that about twelve more will be subdivided during the season, mostly east of the Beaver Hills. However, dilatory the interior department may have been in the past, regarding surveys in this region they are certainly taking hold of the matter in good style now. The policy appears to be to get the surveys finished well in advance of settlement this year, and to keep well in advance for the future. There is no doubt that the districts now being surveyed are the choicest in the Northwest, and that they will be in demand by settlers to a great extent even this year.

Regina Leader, May 11: Seeding through out this district is through in most sections, having been started nearly three weeks ago. The farmers are confidently expecting a good harvest this year on account of the splendid condition of the ground all over the country. A good deal of gardening is being done, many having potatoes planted already.

Regina Leader, May 11: Saturday's train north carried a party of settlers from Vermont for the Prince Albert district. Others from the same state went out under guidance of immigration agent Wagner to look for and select several large tracts of lands for a party which will follow later on.

Free Press, May 12: The report from the small pox quarantine station yesterday states that all the patients are progressing nicely. One hundred and sixty-seven Russians were vaccinated yesterday with the points received from Dr. Hewitt on Tuesday.

A rain storm on the night of May 11th blew down the tents in the Winnipeg quarantine grounds and covered the ground with water.

The incline in the Lethbridge mines was closed down on May 15th. This closing down affected 75 men and boys.

Free Press, May 10: E. E. Pettit, Dominion government immigration agent at Aberdeen, S. D., arrived Saturday with a party of seven immigrants and two cars of stock and effects. These people left on Sunday for Edmonton and Prince Albert. Mr. Pettit says there would have been a much larger party with him on this excursion had not the recent storms in South Dakota prevented intending emigrants from making preparations to leave. Those who arrived are more than pleased with what they have seen of the country, as they say the season here is farther advanced than in South Dakota. They had been told that there was two feet of snow here and were surprised to see seedling so far advanced. Mr. Pettit says there will be a large number of a good class of settlers leave South Dakota in June, who will all take homesteads in the Northwest. PALOUSE VS EDMONTON AGAIN.

Willard Nichols, late of Latah County, Idaho, who came to this country last fall, writes from Fort Saskatchewan to his home paper that he had not "seen any good wheat yet only what was sown in from other countries for exhibition to the land agents. The wheat raised in this country we would only use for food in the home." There is nothing here to do that a man can make a dollar at. There has been some of the biggest failures told about this country a person ever heard. The land is all covered with willow brush, it is so cold timber will not grow here. Mr. Nichols is evidently the proprietor of a ready gun and a vivid imagination. His idea of samples of grain for exhibition purposes being imported to this district deserves a patent, in view of the fact that for the last two consecutive years the grain from this district shown in straw, took first prize at the Winnipeg exhibition against the heaviest competition from every part of the Northwest. The same was the case regarding the exhibit of grasses. So far from Edmonton having secured samples of agricultural products from other districts it has become somewhat notorious that exhibits from Edmonton have on many occasions been labelled as coming from other sections of country. As to the comparative quality of the wheat raised in Edmonton and Palouse the BULLETIN can only repeat what it said in this connection once before and what every wheat buyer or miller in the state of Washington—or anywhere else for that matter—knows beyond doubt, namely that Palouse wheat is not worth within a good many cents a bushel as much as Edmonton wheat for milling purposes, that it will not make as many pounds of flour to the bushel, and the flour is not worth as much per hundred after it is made. The case is stated in the word, that Palouse wheat is soft, while Edmonton wheat is the hardest of the hard. The idea that the climate is so cold here that timber will not grow, while the country is covered with willow brush, is on a par with Mr. Nichols other imaginings. There are four saw mills running in the Edmonton district making spruce lumber of the best quality and of all ordinary dimensions. As to the country being covered with willow, it depends where Mr. Nichols directs his attention. There are parts which are covered with willows, just as other parts are covered with large timber and other parts are clear prairie. There are millions of acres of fine open country of the most fertile soil in Northern Alberta, and if a person chooses willow in preference to open land that is his own affair. He doesn't have to. The fact appears to be that Mr. Nichols has found himself a long way from home, and probably the most supplies shut off, and finds it necessary to talk generosity in order to secure sympathy and funds, on the ground that the country did not offer him suitable opportunities. By way of comparison, a letter from Latah county, Idaho, dated May 24th says: "The spring is very late here. We have just commenced sowing wheat in the best of May, and the soil is all right. The same day about the same day and month here has been too cold. I had not sown wheat anywhere as yet."

Mr. Nichols' opinion regarding the country and reports that there will be a considerable removal of people to the Northwest as a result of his efforts in having looked 60 families.

Vidette, Fort Qu'Appelle, May 11: Seeding operations are very active just now. While, on high and light lands, seeding is very far advanced, there is quite a lot yet to be done in the low and heavier soils.

Medicine Hat Times: Taking everything into consideration the month of May never gave better promises for a good crop of grain and vegetables than it is doing this year.

Boissevain, Manitoba, Globe, May 11: Early sown grain is sprouting vigorously. Present indications point to an earlier season than usual in actual growth.

Grip, Canada's comic illustrated paper, is offered for sale by the proprietors, Grip, was Bengough. Since Bengough left it Grip has been no good.

SUPREME COURT.

MONDAY, May 15.

Peter Bonin vs W. S. Robertson. Action of trover for two horses and damages. The horses were seized by Robertson as bailiff for the First National bank of Red Lake Falls, Minnesota. Bonin purchased the horses from one Mallette in South Edmonton, without knowledge of any mortgage. It appeared that Mallette had mortgaged to the bank before leaving Minnesota. The plaintiff Bonin contended that such mortgage did not affect him, he being a bona fide purchaser. Defendant contended that a United States mortgage was good in Canada against all parties. Judgment reserved. S. S. Taylor for plaintiff. N. D. Beck for defendant.

Gustave Hiller vs Wm. Humberstone. Suit for balance of wages $25.75. Defendant contended that plaintiff was liable for tools lost amounting to this sum. Judgment for defendant with costs. N. D. Beck for plaintiff. S. S. Taylor for defendant.

Nelson and Kaslo are rival towns in the West Kootenay district of British Columbia, both situated on Kootenay lake. Nelson is the older town and the terminus of the railway. But the Kaslo people are hustlers. Nelson business men proposed to organize a South Kootenay board of trade, which would include representatives of all interests on Kootenay lake. The Nelson men were: "When the charter members of this board of trade—Nelson men by the way—held their first annual meeting some weeks ago they anticipated this kind feeling on the part of their Kaslo brethren, and representing it, elected a slate which was to stand only until such time as Kaslo people should have a chance of studying out the by-laws and make up their minds whether they would 'join' or not." The Kaslo men could only make up their minds to "join" and came down to Nelson strong prepared to vote out Nelson and vote in Kaslo. According to arrangement the Nelson officers resigned and then the Kaslo men instead of electing new officers moved that the meeting be the election of officers to hold at Kaslo. Then the Nelson men backed out the meeting broke up in a deadlock with general indignation in prospect. The result of the matter is that Nelson and Kaslo are both under the influence of a boom and are now bent on holding under such circumstances.

The Regina Standard says regarding the arrest of Wm. Bell one charge of manslaughter, for having shot the murderer, "Of course, in this case justice overtook the murderer more expeditiously than usual, but it was none the less effective. If Bell is guilty of an indictable offence so are all who had part in hunting down the criminal. We hope the Regina's force and conjectures are unfounded. The police authorities can find much to engage their attention that is vastly more important than harassing law-abiding citizens over the accidental shooting of a cold blooded murderer."

Regina Leader: Mr. J. McAra was successful in locating three families of Germans on homesteads near Strassburg in the Lake country. The original intention of this party was to go on to the Edmonton country but after seeing the district around Regina concluded that here they could find everything requisite to make a successful start in pioneer life. They sent through to Winnipeg for their stock and effects on Monday.

Medicine Hat Times: The Times does not wish to pose as an alarmist, but it cannot resist raising its voice against the criminal carelessness of a few individuals in this town who appear to be waiting to be forced to remove the filth from their premises. As well might a man put poison in his neighbor's well as keep filth in his own yard from which poisonous gases arise and pollute the atmosphere which his neighbor is forced to breathe.

The Vilette gives an account of an exciting accident which happened at Fort Qu'Appelle on Wednesday of last week, a wagon heavily loaded with flour and drawn by six horses falling from near the summit of the hill and careening down to the bottom at a tremendous speed, turning a complete somersault at the bottom. Nothing was injured except the tongue of the wagon.

Regina Standard, May 12: A large tract of country south and east of Regina has been swept by prairie fires during the past week. Many settlers narrowly escaped the loss of houses and out-buildings. On Monday and Tuesday destructive fires were raging in the Canadian community. The heavy rains of Wednesday put a stopper on the fires.

The Regina Standard mentions the death of H. L. Reynolds of that place. Mr. Reynolds will be remembered by old time Winnipeg people as a townsman in the early days. His wife was a daughter of Sam. H. Spencer, who was collector of customs in Winnipeg long ago. Mr. Reynolds was in the employ of the Indian department at the time of his death.

Carberry, Manitoba, had a $25,000 fire on May 10th.

Cholera is raging in Malacca, and has appeared at Singapore, Japan.

Two deaths of smallpox have occurred at the Winnipeg quarantine.

The Carman, Manitoba, Standard, has been purchased by Geo. Harper.
